

Featured Speakers

Keynote: Rep. Laurie Jinkins

---

Laurie Jinkins is a legislator, attorney and public-health advocate with a long, active record of public service and community involvement. Laurie has been engaged in education, government improvement, community leadership and human rights issues for many years. Elected to the Washington State House of Representatives in 2010, Laurie represents the 27th Legislative District in Pierce County, which includes East, Downtown, Hilltop, North, Northeast and West Tacoma as well as Ruston and a small slice of Fife. She currently serves on the capital budget, environment, health care & wellness and transportation committees. Laurie also serves as the deputy director of the Tacoma-Pierce County Health Department, managing its daily operations. Before her public-health work at the local level, she served in several executive positions between 1995 and 2008 at the Washington State Department of Health, including as assistant secretary of health, chief administrator and executive director.

Andrew Dannenberg, MD, MPH

---

Andrew L. Dannenberg, MD, MPH, is an affiliate professor in the Department of Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences and in the Department of Urban Design and Planning at the University of Washington in Seattle. At UW, he teaches courses on healthy community design and on health impact assessment which is a tool to inform community planners about the health consequences of their decisions. He is also a consultant to and former team leader of the Healthy Community Design Initiative at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Atlanta. For the past decade his research and teaching have focused on examining the health aspects of planning and designing our built environment. Dr. Dannenberg is the lead author of MAKING HEALTHY PLACES: DESIGNING AND BUILDING FOR HEALTH, WELL-BEING, AND SUSTAINABILITY with Howard Frumkin and Richard J. Jackson, published by Island Press in August 2011.